RELIGION POLICY

PURPOSE

SRMCS shall neither promote nor disparage any religious belief or non-belief. SRMCS encourages all students and employees to have appreciation for and tolerance of each other's views.

SRMCS allows the inclusion of religious music, art, drama and literature in the curriculum and in school activities, provided it is intrinsic to the learning experience and is presented in an objective manner without sectarian indoctrination.

The history and contemporary values and the origin of various religions, holidays, customs and beliefs may be explained in an unbiased and nonsectarian manner.

To the extent possible, special school events, such as public meetings, hearings, and dedications, shall be scheduled at times which are not likely to conflict with observance of religious holidays.

RESPONSIBILITY

It shall be the responsibility of the Director to ensure that the study of religious materials, customs, beliefs and holidays at SRMCS is in keeping with the following guidelines:

- The proposed activity must have a secular purpose;
- The primary objective of the activity must be one that neither advances nor inhibits any religion;
- The activity must not foster governmental relationships with religion;
- The activity must not demonstrate favoritism for any religion.

The Director is granted authority to develop and implement directives and guidelines for the purpose of providing further guidance relative to the teaching of materials related to religion.
