Plans have begun at Swan River to create an environmental library and we need your help. We are asking for new or gently read book donations for any age about the environment and nature. Some topics include:

Plants, animals, space, weather, oceans, biomes, habitats, seasons, geysers, water cycle, animal adaptation, natural resources, planets, phases of the moon, composting, carbon, climate change, migration, reduce, reuse, recycle, food chain, food web, classification, clouds, biodiversity, great lakes, renewable energies, insects, amphibians, rivers, lakes, environmental stewardship, geology, astronomy, phenology, butterflies, trees... really anything that relates to our environment.

This will be an ongoing project, with the hopes of having an operational environmental library soon! The small storage area just outside the gathering space will be used to drop off books...and please don't hesitate to contact anyone from the EE committee:
